Course Details

Credit Points 12

Summary of the Course

This course will provide high-achieving students with the opportunity to pursue a research pathway.

In this course, students will develop and complete a research thesis of 10,000 to 12,000 words, with individual supervision from an academic staff member from the School of the Arts and Media.

This course can only be taken in the final term of enrolment.

Students must obtain permission from the Program Convenor in order to enrol. Students must contact the Program Convenor with an available research proposal at least 4 weeks before the commencement of the term in which they intend to enrol in this course.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate advanced disciplinary knowledge relevant to the research area.
2. Demonstrate a capacity for self directed enquiry based learning, and highly developed research skills.
3. Demonstrate the capacity for high quality critical analysis, thinking, and reflection.
4. Demonstrate the ability to develop and effectively communicate a clear contribution to the area of research.
5. Demonstrate a sound understanding of both local and global issues relevant to the area of research
