4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

Students need to understand the scope and sequence of the NES English K-6 syllabus and use it appropriately to track typical stages of development within and across skill areas. The course has a strong focus on literacy development and the diverse influences and aspects of literacy. Understanding the recursive nature of literacy development is critical. The Literacy Continuum will be used to analyse both concurrent development of aspects of literacy and the cumulative nature of skills across literacy strands.

6. COURSE CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

This course outline sets out the description of classes at the date the outline is published. The nature of classes may change during the term after the course outline is published. Moodle should be consulted for up-to-date class descriptions. If there is an inconsistency in the description of activities between the University timetable and the course outline (as updated in Moodle), the description in the course outline on Moodle applies.

8. ASSESSMENT

Assessment Task	Weight
-----------------	--------

Assessment criteria

Preservice teachers will be assessed on their knowledge about:

- x persuasive genres including genre structure and distinctive language features
- x the genre-based pedagogy for teaching writing
- x a sequence for teaching grammar and spelling for writing
- x differentiation strategies for teaching Grammar to EAL/D students.

Assessment 2: Teaching critical multimodal literacy in a literature -based program (60%) (Pair work)

Indicative length: equivalent to 4000 words (as this assignment is not an essay, precise word count measurement is not feasible. The word count suggestions below should be taken as a guide and not rule).

Preservice teachers work in small groups (2-3 members) to prepare for and teach critical multimodal literacy in a literature-based program. All group members must respond or contribute to every section of the task. Equal contribution to the task from all group members. The same mark will be given to all group members.
