3. Strategies and approaches to learning

Online Consultation: The Course Coordinator is available for online consultation to students, individually or as a group. Virtual consultations must be arranged at a mutually convenient time, an agenda or meeting topic must be provided with a minimum of 48 hours prior notice. Consultation with the course coordinator may address topics related to assessment, broad course structure, or matters of a personal nature. Lecturers and tutors are also available for online consultation, to be arranged via email, to address specific topics, and/or tutorial-related matters.

3.2 Expectations of students

All news updates and announcements will be made on the 'Announcements' forum on the Moodle page and/or by email. It is the student's responsibility to check Moodle and their student emails regularly to keep up to date.

Given that the course content and some assessable components (e.g., Tutor-Led Activities, Final Exam) are delivered online, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that they have access to a computer with a stable internet connection and a browser capable of handling the features of the Moodle eLearning website and any of its content.

The Moodle discussion forum should be the first line of contact with the Course Coordinator (meeting
